Culpeper Social News

Culpeper Social News

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Culpeper, Va., May 27.—Mrs. John Berry, of Baltimore, is visiting her aunt. Mrs. Gave English, on East Street.
Dr. Hugh Hill, of "Glendalough," and Edward Lovell were guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. Willio Hill, or East Street.
Miss Bessle Norris and Mrs. Turnbull, of Baltimore, are the guests of Mrs. Randolph Morris.
Mrs. Flint and her son-in-law, Dr.
Milford, of Seven Pines, Ga., have joined Mrs. Milford and children at Miss Susie Geoure's, and will be in Culpeper through home-coming week.
Mrs. F. Furnyal, of Ranidan, spent

week,

Mrs. F Furnival, of Rapidan, spent Monday with Mrs. Orville Loving, and Tuesday went for a visit to her aunt, Mrs. Richard Lewis, at Rosedale, near

Mrs. Richard Lewis, at Rosedale, near Rixeyville.

Mr. and Mrs. James Strother and little son, of Welch, W. Va, arrived this week to spend the summer at "Kinloch," their country home, near Culpeper, and have as their guest, Miss Cecil Taylor, of Baltimore.

Mrs. Joseph Clark, of Lexington, Ky., is visiting her son, Clifford Clark, at "Arton Green," his recently purchased home in the country.

Mrs. David Tompkins, of Alexandria, was the guest this week of her sisterin-law, Mrs. Broadus Stringfellow, Mrs. Thomas Broadus, of Washington, is also visiting relatives in the country.

Miss Annie Tredway, of Danylle, is visiting her brother, Arthur Tredway, on Jameson's Hill. Mrs. Tredway leaves to-day for a stay of several weeks with relatives near Roanoke. William Abney, of Augusta, has been the guest during the week of his boyhood triend, Frank M. Glikeson, on Jameson's Hill. Mr. Abney is just returning from a visit to his cousin flev. Arthur Kinsolving, of St. Paul's mother, Mrs. D. A. Grimsley, on Railfectory, in Baltimore.

returning from a Rev. Arthur Kinsolving, of St. Paurs Rev. Arthur Kinsolving, of St. Paurs Fectory, in Baltimore, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Miller were the week-end guests of Mr, and Mrs. Lewis Nelson on their return from a Justi in Rappanannock, and left for their home in Richmond on Monday, Miss Rebecca Miller remained in Rappalannock, where she is visiting her grandfather, John Pope Miller, near Sparryville.

Mirs. Greanor Neale, in Richmond, has returned to Culpeper for the summer.

Hev. Josiah W. Ware, who has been spending a few days with relatives in Clark, since attending the council at Winchester, returned Thursday, accompanied by his son, J. W. Ware, Jr., who will be here during homecoming week.

Mrs. Clarence Underwood entertained the Matine Bridge Club Wednerday. Her guests were Mesdames Max Samuelson. Frederick Hudgins, D. James Coleman, Samuel Booker, Clyde Lewis, Misses Mary Vass, Florence Vass, and Byrd Law. The prize, a lacocollar, was won by Mrs. Clyde Lewis, Strawberry ices and 'divinity fudge' cake were served.

Mrs. Edelin, of Washington, is the guest of her son-in-law and daugnter, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Grimsley, but will leave about the middle of June for a stay with friends at Lake Mohonk, N. Y., and later will go to Litcheld, Conn., where she will spend the remainder of the summer.

Rev. Arthur Gray, Sr., has accepted a call to the nighboring parish of Rappahannock, and will enter upon his new charge about the last of June. Rev. and Mrs. Gray expect to visit friends in Culpeper before going to Rappahannock.

The Culpeper school closed Friday for the summer, vacation, and many of the teachers have already lett for their respective homes. Miss Med of Hampden-Sidney, who recently won the intercollegiate eratorical contest

Jameson's Hill. Mr. Abney is Just returning from a visit to his coustin. Rev. Arthur Khinsolving, of St. Paul's rectory, in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Miller were the week-eani guests of Mr. and Mrs. Visit n. Mr. and Mrs. Barbour accompanied by their niece, Miss Edith Miller remained in Monday. Wist in the palmanock, where she is visiting in Miss Riebecca Miller remained in Monday. Miss Riebecca Miller and Miss Ramanous Miller. Miss Nose Dale. Miss Nose intertained a few friends at bridge on Tuesday morning. Those playing were Mrs. Edwin Miss Augusta Buddache, Miss Mary Vass. Miss Margaret Edelin, Miss Augusta Buddache, Miss Mary Vass. Miss Margaret Edelin, Miss Augusta Buddache, Miss Mary Vass. Miss Rila McGormick, who has been visiting the Misses Lewis, at "Rose Dale. Miss Eliza McGormick, who has been visiting the Misses Lewis, at "Rose Dale. Miss Rila Misses Misses Mary Miss Monday, of Washington, are visiting Mr. Miss Rila Misses Mi

Big Stone Gap Social News

Mrs. Clarence Underwood entertaind the Matine Bridge Club Wedner lay. Her guests were Mesdames Max Samuelson, Frederick Hudgins, D. ames Coleman, Samuel Booker, Clyde Lewis, Misses Mary Vass, Florence collar, was won by Mrs. Clyde Lewis, strawberry Ices and "divinity fudge" ake were served.

Mrs. Edelin, of Washington, is the truest of her son-in-law and daugner. Mrs. Edelin is also a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Grimsley, but will cave about the middle of June for a tray with friends at Lake Mohonk, Y., and atter will go to Litcheld, John, where she will spend the remainder of the summer.

Rev. Arthur Gray, Sr., has accepted to call to the neighboring parish of ucell to the neighboring parish of usels to the neighboring parish of the summer vacation, and many for the summer vacation, and many of the teachers have already left for the summer vacation, and many for the summer vacation, and many will visit friends in Culpeper before gong to Rappahannock.

Mrs. Edelin of Washington with the teachers have already left for the summer vacation, and many will visit friends in Washington; Miss will was beautifully decorated in the washington; Miss will visit friends in Washington; Miss will washington; Miss will will will be will b

Style-Fit-Comfort

LL objections to welted shoes positively

Process" Flexible Welted Sole. It makes a new shoe as comfortable as an old shoe from the first moment worn. It is as elastic and flexible as a Turn Sole Shoe. It is used on all "Queen Quality" Styles.

THE BIG STORE

overcome by the "Wonder Worker

Mrs. Fannie Rivenac, of Richmond, arrived Saturday to spend the sum-mer with her sister, Mrs. W. C. Akors.

Beaver Dam Social News

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Beaver Dam, Va., May 27.—Mrs. Ida Hatch, of Richmond, is visiting her father, Dr. James Hatch, Dr. Henry Carter recently visited the home of H. C. Redds.
Willie Putney was the week-end guest of his mother, in Richmond, last week.
Charlie Satterwhite has returned home from Florida.

a pleasant evening was enjoyed by all present.

The annual Memorial Day exercises of the Woman's Study Club took place to-day in the Methodist Church at 2 o'clock, after which the club went in a body to Oakwood Cemetery, where the exercises were concluded, and lovely flowers were placed on the graves of the loved ones resting there.

graves of the loved ones resting there.

The Woman's Study Club held its annual election at the last meeting, and the following officers were elected for 1911-12: President, Mrs. Margaret Munro; Pirst Vice-President, Mrs. Kate G. Read; Second Vice-President, Miss Lottie M. Evans; Secretary, Mrs. Laura Barbour; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Hattle Darden; Treasurer, Mrs. Lillian Lytle; Diectors—Mrs. Meta Woodward, Mrs. Isabel Bilbic, Mrs. Marian Read; Parliamentarian, Mrs. Marian Savage.

Boydton Social News

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Boydton, Va., May 27.—Colonel Jas.
Alexander, who has been spending the winter in Louisiana, has returned to Buffalo Springs.

Mrs. A. E. Curtis has returned to her home here, after spending six months in Washington and New York with relatives and friends.

Blair Haskins and Gordon Goode, on account of pinkeye, returned to their homes here Thursday, from Randolph-Macon Academy.

Mrs. C. T. Baskervill and daughter,
Miss Lulle Baskervill, were in Richmond for soveral days last week.

Mrs. W. G. Pleasants and daughter, Mrs. Chambers Goode, spent saveral days in Richmond last week.

Mrs. Alice B. Finch is here on a visit to her brother, C. T. Baskervill, Mrs. Thomas F. Goode, her daughter, Miss Kate Goodes, accompanied by Mrs.
Goode's granddaughters, have returned after a very pleasant trip to Baltimore and Washington.

Mrs. Hattey is here on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Z. V. Furr.
Mrs. C. N. Williams and daughter,
Miss Ehel Williams and daughter,
Miss Ehel Williams are, visiting relatives in Lynchburg and Roanoke.

Hylas Social News

Edwin Snead and granddaughter.

Miss Lucile Snead, attended the reunion of the old Fifteenth Virginia kegiment at Williamsburg this week.

Miss Vernon Wiltshire spent several days last week at B. K. Cocke's, at Rockville.

Rockville.

Mr. and Mrs. John Snead, Mr. and Mrs. George Wiltshire. of Rockville, spent Sunday at Julian Wiltshire's.

Mrs. V. C. Wiltshire and daughter visited Mrs. C. P. Deitrick at Coal Hill last week.

Concord Social News

visiting in Lynchburg, returned home Friday, accompanied by Miss Marie Jones.

Miss Martha Evans, teacher at New London Academy, spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents.

Henry Anderson, of Lynchburg, visited his brother, near here Sunday.

W. C. Akers, of Lynchburg, spent Sunday with home people.

Miss Zedna Carson, of Jeter Institute, Bedford City, paid her relatives a short visit last week.

Major Scott, of Roanoke, was a visitor in town last week.

Dudley Wilson spent Saturday and Sunday with his brother, at Brookneal.

Mrs. Henry Shearer left last week on a visit to relatives in Bluefield, W. Va.

George Canada, of Lynchburg, visit-on a visit to relatives in Bluefield, W. Ya.

George Canada, of Lynchburg, visited his aunt last week.

J. W. Meeks, of Lynchburg, spent Sunday with his daughters. Misses Virginia and Margaret, at Hotel Cross. Mrs. J. C. Harden and son, went to Lynchburg Sunday to visit relatives. George Cross spent Saturday and Sunday in Roanoke.

William Moses, of Appomattox, was in town Saturday.

Miss Lizzie Staples, of Lynchburg, spent Sunday with her mother here,

Charlie Satterwhite has returned home from Florida.

Mrs. Mary Taloy is daughter in Richimond
Miss Fennell Crawley recently left for her home in Farmville.

Mrs. E. C. Terrell is visiting in Richimond.
Miss McGeorge has returned to her home in West Point.

Mrs. Nathan Rell, of Farmville, is visiting her mother. Mrs. W. D. Terrell.

Miss Bertie Seny will make a short visit to Richmond this week. Miss Hill, of Charlottesville, is the guest of Mrs. Pace. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, of Richmond, were the guests of Mrs. F. L. Withers recently.

were the guests of Mrs. F. I. Withers recently.
T. O. Moss is home from a visit to Richmond.
Miss Francis Harris is the guest of her grandparents at Mineral City.
Raymond Moss left this week to spend some time in Covington.
Robert Terrell has returned to his home at Gwathneys.

King George Social News

King George Social News

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

King George, May 27.—Mrs. Frank Briltain, of Morganton, N. C., is spending some weeks with her parents, Mr.
and Mrs. Henry T. Garnett, at "Sky Hill."

Mrs. Rose T. Hunter is visiting her sister-in-inw, Mrs. G. Ogle Tayloe, at her pretty home on the Rappahannock.

Mrs. R. P. Quis aberry, who has been under treatment for two months in a Richmond hospital, has recovered sufficiently to return home.

Mrs. Ralph Gedney, who since her marriage last December, has been a guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Tayloe, at "Chatterton," left on Monday for Washington, en route to New York, to sail for Panama, where Mr. Geney holds a government position.

Mrs. Paul Bradley is a guest of Miss Elta Wilson, at Wakefield Manor, Westmoreland county.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Herrell, of Washington, are spending a month with Mrs. Herrell's parents, ... and Mrs. H. A. Mason.

Mrs. Watson, wife of Rev. Louis Watson, of Charlottesville, with two of her children, is visiting her father, E. W. Mason, at "Clover Hill."

Mrs. B. T. Turner and daughter, Miss Nannie Byrd Turner, and Thorner, left last week for Madison Courthouse, to join Mr. Turner, who has recently accepted a call to the Protestant Episcopal churches of King George for twelve years. The parish is now without a rector.

Miss Nannie Hungt, ord, of Washington, is a guest of Mrs. T. Withers Boggs, at "Mt. Ida."

Heathsville Social News

Heathsville Social News

[Special to The T mes-Dispatch.]

Heathsville, Va., May 27.—Mrs. Chas.
Globson. president of the Virginia
Chapter of the society of Fairfax county Daughters of 1812, has reported plans for a granite shaft, with a bronze cap, which is to be shortly erected on the site where Mary Covingion hid the arms of the British landing party; was returned to compel her to reveal where she had put them, and finally was rescued by hir husband, who, with the Continentals, captured the invaders.

Mrs. J. W. Tankard, of Northumberland, is a member of the Society of 1812, and the Mary Covington spoken of above was her grandmother. Dr.
T. S. D. Codington, at whose home,
"Surprise Hill." in Northumberland county, which took the name from the incident recorded, is her grandson.

Lee-Jackson Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, will bestow the Southern Cross of Honor upon about thirty veterans and descendants at Heathsville, on June 3. Colonel Geo.
C. Cabell, of Norfolk, past commander Sons of Veterans, and Judge Sam W.
Williams, Attorney-General, will be present and speak. It is hoped that W. McDonaid Lee, division commander U. S. C. V., through whose efforts the orators were secured, and other popular speakers, will be present. Dinner will be served free to all veterans in Masonic Hall. Each veteran has been requested to wear his "cross" or a tiny knot of red and white

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Rowe and Mrs.
Lloyd Rowe have returned from a visit to Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Ims are home from their trip to Richmond and Baltimore.

W. S. Brown is spending some time in Richmond and Fredericksburg.

Middleburg Social News

Middle burg Social News

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Middle urg, Va., May 27.—Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy, of Southampton, L. I., are visiting their daughter, Mrs. D. C.
Sanda, Jr.

Mrs. Francis Green, of New York City, is visiting friends in the vicinity, and is accompanied by hor little daughter.

G. I. Hartley has as he guest his mother and sister. They wil remain with him several weeks before returning to their home in Montclair, N. J.
Mrs. Eyster, of Madison, Wis, and her little son are at Mr. and Mrs.
D. K. Smith is at home on his vacation.

Oven are visiting Mrs. E. E. Lamb Mrs. J. D. Townley and daughter are attending the Lewisburg Seminary inal exercises at Lewisburg inal exercises at Lew

Burkeville Social News

[Special to The Innes-Dispatch.]
Burkeville, Va., May 27.—Mrs. T. P.
Shelton and sister, Mrs. June Farrer, are on a ten days' visit to Amelia County. Mrs. J. H. Young entertained the Thursday Book Club at 19:30 A. M. serving delicious refreshments at 12 o'clock o'clock. William B. Agnew is in town for a few days.

The High School has closed for the year's work, the school graduating three this year.

James Agnew Hughes is at home

PASSAGE TO STATE OF THE PASSAGE AND ADDRESS OF T Don't Persecute your Bowels

Don't Try to Deceive Her-she ha ried Liggett's Chocolates and there's nothing "just as good." Pounds, 80c.

Polk Miller's, The Rexall Store.

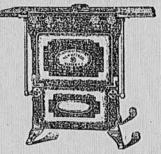

Genuine must bear Signature

Breuksood

There's No Place Like Home

Provided you have prepared for the hot weather by the installation of the little conveniences that make the house comfortable. For the house, the porch or the lawn we have just what you want to make life enjoyable! Make your selections from our immense stock to-day. Pay a little down and a little a week at "The Store That Saves You Money."

New Method Gas Ranges Gibson Refrigerators

Save one-quarter of your gas bills. Will not heat up the house in hot weather. Cooks in a jiffy. No replenishing fuel; no ashes; no trouble of any kind. Just the best store ever defuel; no ashes; no trou-ble of any kind. Just the best stove ever de-vised for comfort and convenience. Bake, proil, toast or fry with-out scorching. Free from all explosive dan-ger. If you want the ger. If you want the Gas Range that em-braces every known im-provement, see the New Method demonstrated at this store.

Keeps all food perfectly at an extremely eco nomical consumption of maintain a constant circulation of cold, dry air throughout the food chambers. Made on scientific principles. Double lining of mineral wool and charcoal between outer and inner walls. Manufactured of selected hardwood a handsomely finished.

$2.95 98c a Quartered Oak with genuine covered seat. Well dition to your porch.

69c Buys Large Size Porch Buys a strongly built Settee: a comfortable ad- Porch Rocker, neatly painted and finished.

> This $15.00 Brass $10.95 Full size 2-inch posts and fillers. An extra good Pettit value.

> > Buys Full Sized Couch,

CALL SEGMENT

$4.95 Buys this Solid Oak Chiffonnier; five large drawers; well made and finished. A regular $7.00 value.

New Perfection Oil Cook Stove

Saves time, saves work, saves trouble and money. Easy to light; easy to operate. No dust, dirt or ashes. Safe and odorless. Made right and guaranteed by the makers. Won't heat up the house in summer. The installation of this stove in your home will bring you unlimited satisfaction.

$7.95 Verona covered; a $10.00

$3.95 Buys a Full Size, One Mo-tion Collapsible Go-Cart. Hood, adjustable dash and reclining

Full line of Baby Vehicles. All the

Red Hill Social News

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Red Hill, Va., May 27.—Mrs. E. E.

Lamb and son, Clarence, who have been very sick, are out again.

Misses Rebecca Early and Vivian Owen are visiting Mrs. E. E. Lamb.

Mrs. J. B. Townley and daughter are attending the Lewisburg. W. Va.

Dr. D. A. Farrer went to Richmond to attend the commencement of the University College of Medicine.

J. H. Barksdale is visiting his son, in Waynesboro.

Miss Alie Cosby, of Gordonsville, is visiting Miss Margaret Page.

The commencement exercises of the Salem Social News

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Salem, Va., May 27.—The Ladies' Aid Society of St. Paul's Episcopal Church gave a delightful "silver tea"
Thursday evening at the rectory on Market Street. The proceeds of the affair will be used towards the new church fund, on which work is progressing nicely.

On Tuesday afternoon, from 3:30 to 5 o'clock, an informal reception was held by the Salem Woman's Christian Temperance Union in the hall on College Avenue, in honor of Mrs May Pauline Sparks, State secretary of the New Jersey Loyal Temperance Legion, and who is making a tour of the section in the interest of the work.

The Salem and Roanoke College

West Point Social News
[Special to The Times-Dispatch,]
West Point, Va., May 27.—Mrs. J.
Lewis Tabh, gave a birthday party yesterday afternoon to her little daughter, Midred, and her many little friends.

Mrs. B. B. Bagby entertained the Thimble Club this week.
Harry McCanna, with his wife, have recently spent a vacation, spending the time in and around Philadelphia with relatives.

Mrs. Fred. Thompson, of New York, who has been on a visit to Mr. and reek. Mrs. Cottrell, of Newport News, has een the guest this week of James

Miss Sophie Goode, of Washington. C., is the guest of the Misses or.

O. M. Chandler and daughter, Miss ddie, of New Kent, were the guests Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Chandler this of Mr. and ars. M. P. Chandler this week.

Miss Frances Jones, of Plain View,
Tex., is the guest for the summer of Mrs. W. R. Broaddus.

Mrs. Scott Broaddus and sons, Temple and Singleton, have gone to visit.
Mrs. Broaddus's parents, at Mount-castle, New Kent, but wil stop en route to visit friends in Richmond.
Dr. B. B. Bagby entertained Carter Glass while in West Point this week.

Gordonsville Social News

of Madison Run; Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Cowherd, of "Monteith," spent Sun-day at Jordon, near Gordonsville, the nome of George S. McElroy.

C. S. Mullen, of Petersburg, was a week-end guest at Maywood, the home of Mrs. E. B. Sampson. Willam Beach Lawrence returned to Springfields" on Tuesday after a few Jays' stay in Richmond.

Miss Helen McClelland has returned to Maple Spring, after spending a few days in Gordonsvile visiting Miss Aline Cosby.

Save You 40% on Willow and French Curl Plumes

If you buy direct from the manufacturer. We are the original Willow Plume RE-BUILDERS from your OLD PLUMES. Our dyeing, cleaning, curling and reno-vating of PLUMES cannot be surpassed. Write for our free catalogue.

No. 213 N. First Street, Richmond, Va.

The Pure Food Store

OLIVE SALAD.

We are the sole agents for this Salad. beats the world. No social function can be a success without it. 25c per

A hot weather drink. Keep your iver right and you won't be cross.

Buy of us a bottle of Monticello lirginia-Norton Claret, 50c, or a bottle of Plain Virginia Claret, 25c,

The New Up-Town Store.

Geo. McD. Blake & Co. Fancy Gro

No. 00 Broad St. P

. New Location.

N. W. Corner Third and Broad Streets

Genevieve Timberiake, littin grade; Miss Florence Saunders, sixth grade; Miss Nora Pierce, seventh grade; High School, Miss Bessie Morris and Miss Wirt Davidson.

Miss Cook spent the week-end in Johnson City.

Missees Surah Cochran and Janet Balley and J. W. Rush and Charlie Bunn, all of this place, went to Bristol to the aviation meet.

Dr. H. C. Rucker, formerly of this place, but who is now located in Kentucky, spent Sunday in the Gap, with his sister, Mrs. Karl Stochr.

Rev. W. G. McLauchlin, of Richmond, who will have charge of the Presbyterian Church at this place as pastor during the summer, arrived in the Gap this week. Mr. McLauchlin will hold services here on the second and fourth Sundays in each month. Mrs. Kate Lindsey has returned from Knoxville, where she went to attend the funeral of her cousin, C. L. Bickley,

J. B. Ayers has bought the E. E. Goodloe cottage on East First Street. Mr. and Mrs. Millard, who have been occupying the cottage, will move into the Sheppe property the list of June. Professor H. H. Young had a surprise party for his faculty Tuesday afternoon, when an "important faculty meeting" ended in the serving of delictous cream and cak.

Highland Springs Social News

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Ilighland Springs, Va., May 27.—A.
Sunday school rally and anniversary of the Union Bible Class wil he held Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in Ilighland Springs Methodist Episcopal Church.

Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in Highland Springs Methodist Episcopal Church.

The High School is busy preparing for its commencement exercises, which will be very claborate this year. The class night exercises will be held in the auditorium next Wednesday at 8 o'clock in the evening. Thursday morning at 10 o'clock, the regular closing assembly will be held for all pupils below 7 B grade; Thursday night at 5:15 o'clock, the gradualing exercises will be held in theauditorium.

President Russell, of the State Normal School, will deliver an address. The diplomas will be presented by the clerk of the board, J. B. Dowden. Several medals are to be presented on this occasion, among them the J. B. Dowden industrial medal, and the Marion T. Read essay medal.

The Home Missionary Society recently organized here is progressing, and a lively interest is shown by all connected with it. At the meeting of the past week two addresses were given by visitors from Richmond—Mrs. Michael, from Asbury Methodis. Church, and Mrs. Corley, from Park Place, Refreshments were served and a pleasant evening was enjoyed by all present.

The annual Memorial Day exercises

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Hylas, Va., May 27.—Mrs., Norma Nichols entertained several of her friends at her home Wednesday night with a tacky party.
Miss Namy Snead, of Rockville, is spending this week with her cousins, the Misses Wiltshire, at Hylas.
Miss Letha Jordon, of Orange, is spending some time with friends near Hylas.

Hylas.

Misses Annie and Vernon Bledsoe will be at home Friday from Blacksstone College.

Lieutenant James Rine and bride of Washington, have returned home after spending two weeks with the bride's parents, Professor and Mrs. J. T. Grubbs.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Concord, Va., May 27.—Mrs. Samuel Calhoun, of Bell Spring, was a guest of Mrs. S. B. Carson several days
this week.
Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hudson spent Tuesday in Lynchburg.
Mont Carsen, of Page W. Va., is here visiting bis pagents.
Mrs. Charles Staples, who has been visiting in Lynchburg, returned home
Friday, accompanied by Miss Marie Jones.

on a visit and will return soon to his future home, Boise City, Ida.
Miss Plicher, of Richmond, is visiting Mrs. Young.
Mr. and Mrs. Raysend, of Lancaster, S. C., arrived here yesterday in their touring car.
Miss Jean Agnew is with her sister, Mrs. Hughes, for a few days.
Mrs. Crenshaw, of Richmond, is visiting Mrs. J. B. Furguson, or this town.

town. Professor Horton of Elon College, is the home his sister, Mrs. Somers, for the month of June. Miss May Robertson has arrived from the Mary Baldwin.

Red Hill Social News

work.

The Salem and Roanoke College German Club gave its May german in the skating rink Monday night. It was led by W. Lyle McClung, with Miss Ethel Katzenberger, of Baltimore. There were about afteen couples on the floor.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. White, of Florence, S. C., are guests of relatives in Salem this week.

Miss Louise Shipman, who taught in the Pulaski graded school the past session, has returned to her home hore.

Miss Louise Shipman, who taught in the Pulaski graded school the past session, has returned to her home, where he lived thirty years ago.

W. E. Middleston, of Midsville, N. J., spent several days this week with old friends in Salein, where he lived thirty years ago.

W. T. Younger left Wednesday for a stay of several days in West Virginia.

Miss Helen Mason has returned to Pearisburg, Va., acter a visit at the home of Dr. and Mrs. George E. Koontz, at Lake Spring.

Mrs. J. R. Myers and daughter, Miss Gladys, have returned to Pennsylvania, after spending several weeks with the former's son. J. Rappl Myers, on Pennsylvania Avenue.

Miss Lulia Myers. of Hugerstown, Md., and Miss Ethiol Katzenberger, of Bultmore, are spending some time as guests of Mrs. Maurice Jeter, on Pennsylvania Avenue.

Colonel William Terrill and J. J. Agnew, who attended the United Confederate Veterans requinen held in Little Rock, Ark., have returned.

Mrs. William Order and Mrs. D. G. Armstrons, on Broad Street.

been the guest this week of James Shelton.

C. L. Maskey, of Cleveland, O., is among the newcomers to West Point.

Mrs. Henry Thacker is on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Ellen Taylor, in Norfolk. Miss Sophie Goode, of Washington, D. C., is the guest of the Misses Lewis on First Street.

Miss Susic Cook has Just returned from a visit to relatives in Richmond.

mond.

Dr. George W. Richardson has just bought a fine gasolene launch. He and his family will go to their summer home on King's Creek, on York River, about June 1.

Walter Hargrave, who has been for several sessions a student in the Medical College of Virginia, in Richmond, has returned to his home for the summer.

Gordonsville Social News

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

Gordonsville. Va., May 27.—Mrs

Sally W. Ruffin, of Petersburg, spent a few days this week at "Springnields," the guest of her son, John F.
W. Ruffin.

Mrs. W. Wilbur Osborno returned to her home, "Lower Springfields," on Wednesday, after a delightful visit to Richmond, where she was the guest of Miss Warfield Crenshaw, Miss Annie Wambersle, of Orange, was a visitor at "Lower Springfields,"
this week.

Mrs. Allen Potts returned to "Happy Creek" on Tuesday, after attending the Richmond horse show.

Captain O. O. Lautman, of Pittsburg,
Pa. is visiting his niece, Mrs. Sam W.
McElroy at Maple Spring, Mr. Laufman hus been booking at several places in and near Gordonsville with a view to buying a home in the near future.

W. J. Whitehurst, of Richmond, is

The Misses Maggie and Lizzle Baker are spending some time at their home, "Hopewell, near Gordonsville.

Mrs. George Bidgood, Sr., and Miss Bidgood, of West Grace Street, Richmond, are spending the early summer with their daughter and sister. Mrs. R. V. Whitehurst, at Cedar Grove, Orange county.

Mrs. Jones was a last week guest of her uncle, L. C. Graves, near Barboursylle.

and all will be well.